Customer Reviews

I want to start my review off by saying that I didn't expect to love this story as much as I did. I was kinda thrown off by the idea of two step-siblings being together in anything other than a sibling way, but I must expect, this book isn't what I expected. First off, I focused too much on the fact that they were step-siblings and didn't focus on the fact that they were meant to be together. Honestly, after a few chapters I forgot they were even step-siblings because it didn't matter anymore. They aren't blood related, so I'm mystified at why I was hesitate to read it, I guess when we're used to thinking a certain way about a certain topic, we judge things, judging a book by it's cover, in a way, that we forget about the whole picture. I'm so thrilled that I read this book because it was wonderful and one of my top favorite books I have read this year! Trust me, this book is great! Alex has been in love with his stepsister, Elynn, since she was seventeen. She was always different than other woman he dated, but she also faced a awful ordeal before she met him which made her nervous and cautious of men. So he waited for the day that she would be ready for a relationship with him and loved her from afar. Elynn loves her step-brother, Alex. He is always there for her and she trusts him with her life, which isn't easy, considering her past. She knows Alex is affectionate towards her, but she has no idea Alex has feelings that go deeper than brotherly love. When she's twenty-one, she finally sees a new side of Alex only women he's been with see. And he wants her. Apparently he's always wanted her, but she just never realized it. Together, Alex and Elynn will find eternal happiness and discover love for the first time.
