I read a lot...no, that's not right...i read a LOT. At times i have to take a break and delve into other media for a bit, but coming back to look for new sequels in favorite series is just awesome when i find two new shorts and a new sequel at the same time!...and just prior to yet another sequel!!!If you are new to the series that spawned these shorts then go read book one! It will lead you on an awesome adventure with lots of sequels and a great writer whatever name he uses...A helpful link

This defiantly adds more to the the tail. Adding more details is always great in my way of thinking. This side story adds to the richness of Beth Ann and John. But also adds more ties to the storyline and detections you can branch out with. A very enjoyable story.

The anthologies of side stories continues. Each one is enjoyable and by collecting them they keep the Main Line Books from becoming bloated, multi-threaded monstrosities (cough Wheel of Time cough) where the sheer number of side characters makes the whole book unreadable.Kudos to the author!

It is hard that once you get in the groove (reading), you just don't want to stop and this story although very good was short. The new characters will add more to the storyline mix. I enjoyed it as I do all the BA stories. Please put the next story out soon. So read, enjoy, and save a little food.

Finished the last book out (to this point) in the series these characters can be found, wanted more, found this. Now? Now, I am waiting ooh, so patiently for the next book.Is it out yet?Now?Now!Just saying.

This what a short story based on a series is all about. A little background on one of main secondary characters. Doesn't make sense, but John is a main character. Just not the focus of the series. Overall a very good short read.

As always a fun read. Actually I wish it was longer but like all the rest of you I always want more and if you haven't read any of them yet what the hell are you waiting on. Pick up the first book and join the game

Michael Anderle delivers another charming story in the world of Bethany Anne. The expansion of the series into these little character studies makes the people three dimensional. Seeing past the bullets and brawn into the heart of the warriors who make the stories "human." Keep the epic going!
