Behind The Secrets (Behind The Lives Book 4)

Synopsis

TOO MANY SECRETS...When Beth receives potentially life-changing news that could ruin her future, she decides to keep it a secret from Dante, the man she hopes to marry. But Dante has his own problems as his deepest and darkest secret is revealed when someone from his childhood reappears, a secret so disturbing that it could unravel what's left of his already unstable mind. Beth's brother Corey struggles to keep his relationship with Dante's brother a secret, scared his father will split them apart. But it's his sister he has the most to fear from, when Beth takes advantage of his boyfriend's vulnerable condition. Good cop or bad cop? Saul is eaten away by guilt over what he did to Beth while undercover. No longer willing to keep the assault a secret, he heads down a destructive path that turns him into something far worse than an abuser.

Customer Reviews

I love the Behind the Lives-series! It's rough, it's real and it's hot. In the fourth book I feel like Marita Hansen went back to the focus in the first book. It's still a book that will make you blush, but the storyline is more important. The books have complex and diverse characters and a storyline that draws you in. I like that she writes about important issues, while making great stories. It IS graphic so it's not for the fragile reader.

Love the author and the series. I would love to know how many books are in the series though. I can't wait for the second blurred lines too come out.
